Living In A More Natural And Authentic Way

How To Choose Jewellery That Suits You

What factors go into choosing the right jewellery? Do you even think about it or do you just inherently know what suits you? Maybe you get a compliment every time you wear that certain necklace, or maybe no-one ever notices.

Today, I'm talking with Imogen Lamport from Inside Out Style. Imogen is AICI CIP certified and is World renowned in her field. She teaches others how to become image consultants.

Imogen Lamport - Inside Out Style

Imogen is the author of many books, including The Finishing Touch which is all about how to accessorise.

She is also the creator of several online style programmes including 7 Steps to Style and Ignite Your Style Genius.

In this interview, Imogen and I talk about what factors go into choosing jewellery that suits your body type, your colouring, your style recipe, etc. You'll discover that there are many things to think about.

Great interview Carol. My favourite piece of jewellery is a silver shell given to me by my son to remind me of home!

Thank you so much Jayne. It's really nice when you have sentimental pieces of jewellery to wear.

Choosing jewelry for an outfit is always fun. I often remember what Coco Chanel said about removing one piece. This was a neat interview and must have be fun to do.

Thanks so much Cindy. I used to find choosing jewelry so hard so this was a great conversation to have.

I enjoyed this interview. Choosing jewelry for outfits is the icing on the cake for me. One of my former students who I loved, one day in his 7th grade, my voice is getting deep tone, looked at me and said, "Mrs. Skulina likes the bling." True dat!

Lol. Thanks Paula. That's such a great story. They would probably say that about me too.
